

2023 SE4A Awards Luncheon

Monday, August 28, 2023

SE4A Scholarship Award –This award recognizes those students who are pursuing a career in gerontology or geriatrics who maintain a 3.0 or higher GPA, attend an accredited university within the SE4A region and show financial need.

Breanna Johnson – University of Tennessee

Sarah Kelley – East Tennessee State University

Lifetime Membership Award –This award honors AAA Directors who have left their positions and who have dedicated their time and energy to SE4A. They served on the SE4A Board five or more years, served as a Chair for a Committee or as an officer for SE4A.

Kathy Whitaker –Tennessee

Roger Joe Evans –Tennessee

Susan Segrest –Alabama

Memorial Conference Scholarship Award –To honor those SE4A Board members who have served in the past and provided leadership, vision and a love of learning to others in the Aging network by sponsoring an attendee at the annual SE4A Conference.

Dr. Althea Taylor Jones –North Carolina

Outstanding Community Service Award –This award is presented to a religious institution, service agency, organization, civic club or government department who has made positive contributions to the lives of older adults within their community.

Alzheimer's of Central Alabama

Corporate Partnership Award –This award honors an AAA or business whose partnerships have made a positive impact on the quality of life of older adults.

Genworth Financial –Virginia

Positive Images of Aging Award –This award recognizes an organization who has presented a positive image of older adults and whose platform has made a significant impact within that network.

Tennessee Federation for the Aging (TFA)

Outstanding Volunteer in Aging –This award recognizes an individual who has made a significant contribution through volunteering his or her time in the Southeast aging network.

Charles Hewgley – Tennessee

Aging Impact Award – Local, Regional, National Recognizing individuals from local, regional and national networks, this award reflects the outstanding leadership and immeasurable impact they have shown on the quality of life of older persons.

Representative Donna White – North Carolina

Jane Kennedy Excellence in Aging Award –This award recognizes outstanding contributions of an individual or organization that promotes the safety, welfare, and well-being of older persons in the Southeast region.

Anna Rice – North Carolina